

TEXT

Brown bears are large mammals. They live in mountain forests and valleys of North America, Europe and Asia. They sleep in winter. Brown bears can be 2.3 meters long and weigh up to 680 kilos. They have round ears, long claws and sharp teeth. Brown bears are different colours, too. They can be brown, black or red. Females are smaller than males.