

WHILE-READING ACTIVITY

Read the text and complete the table

TABLE 1

GUIDELINES IN CASE OF AN ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR

	WHAT TO DO IN GENERAL:
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
	IF YOU SEE A BLACK BEAR:
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't

TABLE 2

GUIDELINES IN CASE OF AN ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR

	IF YOU SEE A BROWN BEAR:
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't
You should/shouldn't

KEY

TABLE 1 – Possible answers

GUIDELINES IN CASE OF AN ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR
	WHAT TO DO IN GENERAL:
You should/ shouldn't	be mentally prepared.
You should/ shouldn't	help protect others.
You should/ shouldn't	report bear incidents to a ranger.
You should /shouldn't	get close to bears.
	IF YOU SEE A BLACK BEAR:
You should /shouldn't	play dead.
You should/ shouldn't	try to escape.
You should/ shouldn't	fight back if you can't escape.

TABLE 2 – Possible answers

GUIDELINES IN CASE OF AN ENCOUNTER WITH A BEAR
	IF YOU SEE A BROWN BEAR:
You should/ shouldn't	leave your pack on.
You should/ shouldn't	play dead.
You should/ shouldn't	lay flat on your stomach.
You should /shouldn't	move.
You should/ shouldn't	wait until the bear goes away.
You should /shouldn't	fight back.
You should/ shouldn't	fight back only if the attack continues.