

WHILE – LISTENING

- Listen to a woman describing the “must-sees” in Providence, the capital city of Rhode Island.
- Before listening, read the following statements based on the main ideas of the sound file and then, while you listen, decide if they correspond to what you hear.
- Listen carefully as there may be some incorrect information, in that case correct what is wrong.
- You will hear the recording twice.

STATEMENTS	CORRECT INFO	INCORRECT INFO	CORRECTION
1. Rhode Island and Providence Plantation is the tiniest state with the longest name.
2. Providence is really good for a short holiday.
3. Like most cities in New England it's very old fashioned.
4. The speaker recommends any season to visit it except winter.
5. The Water Fire Festival takes place every weekend.
6. There are bonfires lit along a river that flows near the city.
7. Peculiar art forms are on exhibit during the festival.
8. Light and music create a mysterious atmosphere.
9. No street artists are allowed to perform.
10. Everybody can enjoy food which is on sale.

KEY

STATEMENTS	CORRECT INFO	INCORRECT INFO	CORRECTION
1. Rhode Island and Providence Plantation is the tiniest state with the longest name.	✓
2. Providence is really good for a short holiday.	✓
3. Like most cities in New England it's very old fashioned.		✓	It's a very vibrant progressive city
4. The speaker recommends any season to visit it except winter.	✓
5. The Water Fire Festival takes place every weekend.		✓	Between April and September
6. There are bonfires lit along a river that flows near the city.		✓	The river goes through the city centre.
7. Peculiar art forms are on exhibit during the festival.	✓
8. Light and music create a mysterious atmosphere.	✓
9. No street artists are allowed to perform.		✓	There will be different types of street performers.
10. Everybody can enjoy food which is on sale.	✓		